PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

JO. H. ROGERS, Editor and Proprietor.

FRIDAY, JULY 15, 1892.

Republican Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT,
BENJAMIN HARRISON,
OF Indiana.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
WHITELAW REID,
OF New York.

FOR SHERIFF,
CLAYTON L. WOODWARD.
FOR CIRCUIT COURT CLERK,
SEPTIMUS T. STEVENS.

Col. H. C. Kiser is sentenced to be hanged at Memphis, the 12th of next month for the murder of Hon. David Poston.

At Paducah a mob of negroes attempted to rescue a negro prisoner that was in jail. The militia was called into action to defend the jail, and one of them, Elmer Edwards, was mortally wounded.

It is time for the Republicans of every precinct in Ohio county to organize clubs for the present campaign. They are organizing in other counties. The Republicans of Hartford precinct will organize to-morrow night, the colored voters of Hartford precinct will organize a club to-night, and there are already clubs organized in Cromwell precinct and at Taylor Mines, but it is now time for every precinct to have a regular organized Republican club. We would urge all Republicans to remember that "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty." Let the good work go on. Organize.

SKEERT.

The Herald published on the 29th, ult., what it claimed to be the Platform of the Democratic party, as adopted by the National Convention at Chicago on 23d, ult. We would call attention to the first paragraph of section 3 published by the Herald as a part of said Platform, which reads as follows:

"We reiterate the oft repeated doctrine of the Democratic party that the necessity of the government is the only justification of taxation, and whenever a tax is unnecessary it is unjustifiable; that when custom house taxation is levied upon articles of any kind produced in this country the difference between the cost of labor here and labor abroad, when such difference exists, fully measures any possible benefits to labor, and the enormous additional impositions of the existing tariff fall with crushing force upon our farmers and workmen, and for the mere advantage of the few whom it enriches, exact from labor a grossly unjust share of the expense of the government, and we demand such a revision of the tariff laws as will remove their inequalities, lighten their oppressions and put them on a constitutional and equal basis. But in making reductions in taxes, it is not proposed to injure any domestic industries, but to promote their healthy growth. From the foundation of this government the taxes collected at the custom house have been the chief source of Federal revenue. Such they must continue to be. Moreover, many industries have come to rely upon legislation for successful continuance, so that any change of law must be at every step respectful of the labor and capital thus involved. The process of reform must be subject in the execution to this plan of justice."

The above paragraph is no part of their platform at all as they would not adopt it, but by a vote of 564 to 342 adopted instead, the following:

"We denounce the Republican Protection as a fraud, taxing the labor of the great majority of the American people for the benefit of the few. We declare it to be a fundamental principle of the Democratic party, that the Federal Government has no constitutional power to impose and collect tariff duties except for the purpose of revenue only, and we demand that the collection of such taxes shall be limited to the necessities of the Government when honestly and economically administered."

We notice that other Democratic papers, besides the Herald, have failed to publish this part of their platform, but published instead the Republican doctrine, as the Herald had it. Can it be that they are afraid of their platform or are they only a little "Skeert?"

Workingman's Opinion of The Benefits of Protection.

We have already referred before to the fact that a resolution introduced into the Central Labor Union favoring Free-Trade and advising workingmen to read the Congressional pamphlet of Henry George's book was tabled by an overwhelming majority. In the discussion that followed the introduction of this resolution, Robert Blissett, the founder of the union, which is one of the greatest bodies of organized labor in the United States, took part and made an eloquent speech, opposing its passage, in which he spoke as follows of Protection and the condition of the American laboring classes:

"The conditions existing in the United States today enable the American workingman to buy more and better clothes and other necessities than can be bought by the workingmen of any other country on the face of the earth."

I worked as a tailor in London for many years, and I know what I am talking about. I am opposed, as every honest, intelligent man must be, to the Central Labor Union endorsing Free-Trade by asking workingmen to read Henry George's book. I read that book long ago, and when I finished reading it my belief in Protection was stronger than ever before. There is not a man here who came from England or any other Free-Trade country who will deny that he is getting higher wages under a high Protective Tariff than he ever got or ever could get under Free-Trade. These Free-Traders make a hue and cry about the admission to this country of pauper immigrants, but they turn around and in the same breath ask for the admission of pauper-made goods free of duty. They join labor union for the purpose of boycotting American pauper-made goods and to secure higher wages. Once in the unions and they fight just as bitterly for a party that advocates the open sale in American markets of articles made by men and women who are miserably underpaid in Free-Trade countries. Does the good sense of these delegates here tell them that it would be consistent or honorable, when they consider the continuous warfare of organized labor against pauper-made goods, to vote for this resolution? Protection enables you to have luxuries; Free-Trade robs you of all luxuries and many necessities, reducing you to the low level of the workingmen in the countries from which many of you have escaped to live under the benign influence of Protection.

Here is the opinion of a competent judge, a workman himself and a leader in the ranks of organized labor. He speaks from practical experience, not from a theoretical standpoint, and we are sure that the great body of American workingmen will ratify his sentiments next November.

Facts.

An important change has occurred in the management of the Hartford Republican. The interest heretofore held by Mr. C. M. Barnett has been sold by him to Mr. J. B. Rogers, who is now the sole owner of the paper. Mr. Barnett was the founder of the paper and for some time did the editorial work, which he did with an ability and force that raised him to the highest respect among his brethren of the press throughout the State. Although of very bad politics, there is no more courteous, chivalrous or kindly man in Kentucky than Mr. Barnett; and while it was often our duty to differ with him upon public questions, where he was always an honest antagonist never striking below the belt, it has likewise been our good fortune to know him in the social circle and among gentlemen, where as a neighbor and friend we met and loved him. No good fortune can come to Mr. Barnett which he does not deserve, and the Herald ventures the hope that in the good day coming, when the world will nearly all be Democrats, Mr. Barnett may have the good fortune to acknowledge a political creed irreproachable personality.

CLOVERPORT.

July 12th.—Miss Rose Crittenden, of Central City, is visiting Mrs. Alvin Murray.

Miss Genevieve Bershear, of Owensboro, is visiting Miss Katie Bowmer. Frank Boy, of Louisville, is spending a few days with his parents.

A piece of ground in this place sold recently at the rate of $445.00 per acre.

A great many people are putting down vitrified brick pavements in front of their dwellings.

Oelze & Payne have opened their Hardware Store in their new building. They have a number one house, and a good stock of goods.

The Masons and the Knights of Pythias will move in their new quarters this week. The Masons in the third story of Oelze & Payne's store and the Knights over Fisher's Drug store. Each of the rooms is handsomely furnished.

Mr. Herring Superintendent of the Breckinridge Co. (Limited) has resigned his place with that Company and will return to Scotland. His resignation was caused by some disagreement between him and Mr. Hopper, the resident director, in this country. There is a rumor that the differences may be patched up and Herring yet be retained.

The social event of the season will take place next Thursday, when Miss Katie Bowmer, the belle of this part of Kentucky, is united in marriage to Mr. Sherman, of Texas. Mr. Sherman is a second cousin of Senator John Sherman of Ohio. A great preparation have been made for the coming event and some of the young ladies who are to act as maids of honor are now here.

PARADISE

July 11.—Jo Howard, Liverpool, England, was the guest of his brother-in-law, William Shackleton, the latter part of June.

Last Thursday week James Wallace and Miss Lena Tibbs were married. Rev. Geary, in the presence of a few friends, pronounced the words that made them one. May prosperity and happiness be theirs.

Messrs. Robert Wallace, Harry Moore, Jo Fox and several others attended the wedding at Cromwell the Fourth, all reported a grand time. Gen. D. C. Bond and daughter, Miss Nannie, were the guests of Mrs. Fox last Thursday afternoon.

John Ham has been appointed postmaster to fill out the unexpired term of H. C. Fox, deceased.

Dr. T. S. King was the guest of D. F. Roll and family, last Friday night. There is to be a picnic at Middle the 16th of this month. The managers promise a good time to all.

Several of our good people attended Church at Mt. Carmel yesterday.

M. H.

FRIENDSHIP CHURCH.

Thursday evening June the 28th, a large crowd assembled at Rev. Robert Brandon's to witness the marriage of Mr. Isaac A. Westfield and Miss Viola Brandon. The attendants were P. R. Kelley, Grand Miss Nancy Royal. At 8 o'clock the bridal party came marching out on the veranda, the parlor being too small to admit the crowd. Rev. A. S. Kelley, in a very impressive ceremony, spoke the words that made this couple one.

The groom is 28 years old and the bride nearly 24; so ends a courtship of nearly 10 years, and an engagement of nearly 8. Both the bride and groom stand high in the social circle in which they move. We wish them all the happiness in this life and when this earthly life is over may we meet in that beautiful city whose builder and maker is God. Editors.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a meeting of the Beaver Dam Milling Company at Beaver Dam, Ky., on the 7th day of July, 1892, the following resolutions and resolutions were adopted, to-wit:

Whereas, Our very much respected neighbor, friend and business associate, J. O. Chanvin, departed this life at his home in Beaver Dam, Ky., on the 4th day of July, 1892, and

Whereas, We deem it our duty and pleasure and it is just and honorable to express in appropriate terms our feelings of regret for his untimely demise, and our recognition and appreciation of his worth and virtue while among us, be it therefore

Resolved, That in his death the community has lost a good citizen, and the loss to his family is irreparable. We tender his family our sympathy, and sincerely deplore their bereavement. To the friends of J. O. Chanvin and his family we are respectfully requested to publish these resolutions.

J. T. Smith, Vice-President.
J. H. Rogers, Secretary.

Taylor Mines Club.

On Thursday night last, we had a large crowd of members and visitors.

After opening the Club, the Chairman, Perry Westfield, made an excellent speech of acceptance, which was applauded and appreciated by the entire crowd.

Moved and seconded that three members of the Club be appointed to select a name for the Club. A. J. Carson, Nicholas R. Mass and E. F. Dicker were the chosen ones. They will report at our next meeting on Thursday night, July 12th.

Owing to the bad weather, Messrs. Rogers and Wedding, of Hartford, did not come to make speeches for us, but we learn that they will be on hand next Thursday night, when we will have a full house to hear them.

Moved and seconded that a committee on Programme be chosen. Chas. Hughes, Joe P. Rogers and Peter Lawder were selected.

The entire Club was appointed to solicit names for our club, and several have already given their names as new members. One member went to Hamilton Mines and quite a number signed the list for membership and will be with us Thursday night.

Mr. Shale Taylor, a member of Hartford and Reid club, District No. 2, paid our club a visit, and, on being called for, arose and thanked the club for calling on him to make a speech, and we can not praise his speech as highly as ought to be, but will say it was just timely, and extending an invitation for him to come again.

We have forty members now and have met but twice. We will have a large club if it still increases. The club is organized now and in good working order.

J. L. Rowe, Sec'y.

THE POLITICAL OUTLOOK

In Breckinridge County
A Club at West
View.

Some of the Democrats are exhibiting some concern as to what the Republicans are going to do in regard to nominating candidates for county officers. They evidently fear a fusion of the Republicans and Third Party. On this question we will submit a few facts and figures. In the last race for Governor, in this county, the following vote was cast: John Young Brown 1559, Wood 929, Erwin 1059. The Republicans were the title ends.

It will be remembered, however, that the Republicans had no organization, had no county ticket and were in a sadly demoralized condition. With the proper organization the vote for Wood would probably have been two hundred or more greater. The vote for Wood and Erwin together was 1988; making 149 votes more than Brown received. This begins to show that if the Republicans and Third Party both put out candidates it will result in the Democratic candidate being elected. While it there is a fusion between the Third Party and Republicans it will result in an overwhelming Democratic defeat. The question with the Republicans is whether they will prefer Democratic rules or Republican and Third Party rules combined, or whether the Republicans with a proper organization can elect a ticket of its own. If the figures of the last gubernatorial race go for anything a Republican ticket can not be elected, with tickets of other parties in the field. The present state of affairs shows that with the Third Party and Democratic candidates alone in the field, the Third Party candidates would be elected. Any action that the Republicans take in this county, unless it tends to a combination with the Third Party, will only aid Democratic success. The question then for Republicans to consider is whether the Democratic Party has yet become a party of liberty and courtesy towards its opponents or whether it is that same narrow-minded, hide-bound party it has shown itself to be in the past. The election of Mr. Severs was due to the fact that the Republicans to a great extent, would not support the Alliance candidate, while a great many voted square out in favor of Mr. Severs. Notwithstanding this action of the Republicans, the Democrats by a fair and unobscured act have to some extent shown which way the wind is blowing. On June the 20th, the Republicans secured the Court House for the purpose of holding a meeting and there after an organization of Democrats present raised a cry for "Bar-tailed Langtail" a gentleman of Third Party persuasions. He came forward and was introduced by an attorney of some notoriety in the Democratic party. The Republicans were then forced to adjourn to the City Hall for further business. It seems that Democrats around here don't know what courtesy is, in their treatment of the Republicans. Upon turning a chevron Third Party we find that a good many are kindly disposed towards the Republicans. Going however to small and contemptible things, cast out occasionally by the editor of the Republic, it seems that the Third Party is also inclined to look with distrust upon us, and to fight us as bitterly as the Democrats. Upon viewing the situation it behooves the Republicans to secure a five and wide awake organization to find out the sentiment of the public and to make a red hot fight when any policy is decided upon. If it is decided to nominate a ticket let honest and available men be nominated, and let every Republican enter the fight determined to win.

It seems to the writer that the best interest of the party demands that a fight ticket be put in the field and that a vigorous fight be made. Good Republicans however should acquiesce with any policy devised upon.

Pursuant to a call made by the District Chairman the Republicans of West View met on July 9th for the purpose of organizing a Harrison and Reid Club. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, twenty members were enrolled. Speeches were made by Mr. C. Boyd, John P. Haswell, Jr. and others. The meeting was highly enthusiastic and successful. The Republicans of West View are to be congratulated as they are in earnest.

The following resolutions were presented and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this club, that the Republican party of this county, nominate candidates for Sheriff and Circuit Clerk at the earliest day possible.

Respectfully,
Roxa Hoar.

The Delaware correspondent to the Owensboro Messenger says: "Dr. Len T. Cox and wife, of Heda, Ohio county, were the guests Mr. C. C. Montague last Thursday. The Doctor was here with a view to locating at this point. The leaving of Dr. Haynes makes it a very desirable point for a good physician. We trust that Dr. Cox may decide to become a citizen of our burg."

FOR DYSPEPSIA
Use Brown's Iron Bitters.
Physicians recommend it.
All dealers sell it. 100 per bottle. Genuine has trade mark and crossed rattles on wrapper.

It Was Incendiary.

From investigations that have been made by Officer Miller, it is evident that the fire in Sam Baird's stable Friday night was of an incendiary origin. It will be remembered that Mr. Baird has received several notices to leave the neighborhood in which he lives and in at least one of the warning letters sent he was threatened with fire. The fire bug probably thought the burning of the stable would also destroy the house.

Mr. Baird is a son of S. L. Baird, of the Kinderhook neighborhood, and is well known here.

To Our Subscribers.

The special announcement which appeared in our columns some time since, announcing a special arrangement with Dr. R. J. Kendall Co., of Reading, Pa., viz., publishers of "A Treatise on the Horse and His Diseases," whereby our subscribers were enabled to obtain a copy of that valuable work free of charge by sending their address to R. J. Kendall Co., and enclosing a two cent stamp for mailing same, is renewed for a limited period. We trust all will avail themselves of the opportunity of obtaining this valuable work. To every lover of the horse it is indispensable, as it treats in a simple manner all of the diseases which afflict the noble animal. Its phenomenal sale throughout the United States and Canada, makes it standard authority. Mention the paper when sending for "Treatise."

Tax Notice!

Your taxes for year 1892 are now due and unpaid and as I have been delayed in the collection for more than 60 days by the Legislature, I will expect you to call on me or my deputies and settle at once. The short time that I will have to collect and meet the settlements with State and county will necessitate promptness on your part.

This June 9, 1892.

Mrs. Sallie Phipps died at her home near town Wednesday evening of old age. She was one of the oldest and most highly respected of our citizens and has down a life of usefulness after witnessing the stinging changes of eight-six years. The funeral took place yesterday evening at 3:30 o'clock and was attended by a host of relatives and friends. The family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Col. William H. Woodford came over from Owensboro to Central City Monday evening on the O. & N. and was walking away from the train when the porter from the Sandusky grabbed his grip, as the Colonel says, and attempted to take it in spite of him, and he rapped the dandy over the head with his cane. The latter had the Colonel arrested and the trial came up before Police Judge Williams. The defendant proved by his witnesses his side of it, while the porter's witnesses testified that he kindly asked for the baggage for the Sandusky and that when he said Sandusky he was struck with the cane. The Judge argued the case with a bystander, Mr. Oldham, of the Central City Herald, and finally dismissed it. It seems Woodford slapped a waiter at the Sandusky about a year ago and was fined for it and since hard feelings have existed. Public sentiment is with the Colonel, for it is considered that the dandy was too rough.

For Sale.

A good store and residence in the business portion of Hartford. For particulars apply to C. C. Bennett, Hartford, Ky.

Card of Thanks.

I owe my many thanks to the people of Hartford who kindly remembered us during the recent sickness of my dear companion.

MARY E. CANTON.

A Premium on Lawlessness.

Wes Callahan, a half white negro, was tried last Friday for shooting and wounding in a sudden heat and passion and was held over under bond to answer at Circuit Court next November. Wes is nearly always in trouble of some kind and is arranged before the court 4 or 5 times a year and yet, notwithstanding, his record of being a very bad citizen he was able to furnish a bond worth something near $100,000 for his appearance. Wes is a transient dandy, who for hoodlum has voted the Democratic ticket for the past two years, and because he was a purchasable article and voted that way a prominent attorney was heard to remark on the street that no Democratic negro should stay in jail all night. This is a premium offered for lawlessness by a class of worthless negro citizens, who for hoodlum and whisky will vote the Democratic ticket.

The Leitchfield Gazette says: "At the residence of the bride's father on the 6th of July at 8:30 p. m. Rev. Charles W. Henson, pastor of South Leitchfield Circuit, M. E. Church South, was married to Miss Cornelia H. Clark in the presence of many friends and relatives, S. W. Schellton, pastor of the first M. E. Church, Leitchfield, officiating. Bro. Henson is a rising young preacher with a brilliant future before him. The bride is a popular young lady of a good family, an aversion to the innumerable ranks. The writer wishes the young couple success in their sacred calling."

BEAVER DAM.

July 12.—Since our last, two of our citizens have crossed the valley of death. The first was Mr. John Kuykendoll, who died from the effects of being struck by a running train, of which I gave an account in my last. The second was Mr. Jesse O. Chauvin, one of our best and most industrious citizens. He died last Tuesday, of a severe attack of flux. Several in our town and surrounding country have flux. Mrs. K. V. Williams is right sick with flux. Alpha Dexter is at his father's very sick with this same trouble. Mr. Clint Carson's child, that has been so sick for several days, is somewhat better.

Henry Metcalf, of Louisville was down a few days last week, shaking hands with his many friends who are always glad to see him.

Robert Carson, No Creek, visited his brother, Clint Carson, last Sunday.

Several of our young folks took in the barbecue at Horton Saturday.

WASTED.—Traveling men. Salary $3.00 and expenses per month.

Address, W. W. Wilson, Henderson, Ky.

Notice to Log Men.

I am now ready to contract for sawlogs and will be in Hartford on Mondays and Saturdays. Will be glad to make prices to those who contemplate cutting logs.
